Agriculture Education Courses Database

A mission of the ISPA is to further education in precision agriculture across the globe. In order to strengthen that incitive, ISPA will be compiling a list of current agriculture courses offered by colleges and universities and an outcome of the recent 2022 membership survey. Please complete the survey to let us know about a course or courses you instruct or a course(s) you have participated in. If you would like to submit a survey for multiple courses, please complete a new form for each course.
Submit your agriculture course(s) here.

Country Representative - Chunjiang Zhoa

Country Representatives serve to help promote ISPA by championing the ISPA mission and purpose globally, in particular, in the country they represent. ISPA is growing internationally so Country Representatives remain an important position to help ISPA best serve people, groups, governments and others, globally connecting them to science and experts.

Please join us in thanking ISPA Country Representative from China, Chunjiang Zhao.

If you are interested in becoming a Country Representative, please email info@ispag.org with your bio highlighting your experience in precision agriculture and your CV. ISPA requires that all Country Representatives are current members of the society. To become a member, please complete the membership form.

Webinar: Mainstreaming Precision Agriculture for Increased Productivity and Profitability in African Agricultural Systems

ISPA is pleased to host the African Association for Precision Agriculture's November webinar. The webinar will focus on mainstreaming precision agriculture for increased productivity and profitability in African agricultural systems. The 90 minute webinar will include presentations from Professor Andrew Manu of Iowa State University and Dr. Oluwole Fatumbi of FARA. There will be time at the end for questions. The webinar will be moderated by Professor Kwame Agyei Frimpong, AAPA Community Leader.
